

AMR CORPORATION: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CLAIMS OBJECTIONS PROCESS

1. What do I need to do now if my claim was objected to?

You have a choice to either oppose the Objection or not oppose the Objection.

2. Do I have to do anything if I do NOT oppose the Objection?

No. If you do not oppose the Objection, you do not need to file a written response and you do not need to attend the hearing.

3. Do I have to do anything if I DO oppose the Objection?

Yes. You MUST file a written response and mail the response to both the Bankruptcy Court and AMR Corporation, et al.

4. Where do I send my written response if I oppose the Objection?

A response must be sent and received by the response deadline¹.

You must send one copy of the response to each the following:

- The Bankruptcy Court
One Bowling Green, Room 534
New York, New York 10004-1408
- Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP
Attn: Stephen Karotkin, Esq.
767 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York 10153
- AMR Corporation
Attn: Kathryn Kooreny, Esq.
4333 Amon Carter Boulevard, MD 5675
Fort Worth, Texas 76155
- Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP
Attn: John Wm. Butler, Jr., Esq.
155 North Wacker Drive
Chicago, Illinois 60606
- Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP
Attn: Jay M. Goffman, Esq.
Four Times Square
New York, New York 10036

¹ Deadlines and dates will be dependent on individualized letters sent by AMR Corporation, et al. Please read your letter carefully regarding these very important deadlines

5. Is there a deadline to file a Response if I oppose the Objection?

Yes. The “Response Deadline²” is indicated in the Notice of Hearing letter that you received.

6. Other than the response deadline, are there other requirements that my response to the objection must meet?

Yes. You can find all requirements that your response must meet in the Notice of Hearing letter you received.

7. Where and when will the objection to my claim(s) be heard by the court?

A location³ and date⁴ for the Hearing will be stated in the Notice of Hearing letter that you received.

8. Do I have to attend the hearing if I file a response to the objection?

No, but if you do not attend or appear by telephone, the Bankruptcy Court may grant the objection by default.

9. If I would like to attend the hearing but I am unable to do so in person, can I participate by phone?

Yes, if you comply with the Court’s instructions which include providing prior written notice to the lawyers representing American Airlines and the Creditors Committee. You can find the information about what to submit and to whom on the Court’s website at www.nysb.uscourts.gov.

10. What was the basis for my claim being Objected?

Please see the Notice of Hearing letter you received, which provides the claim objection category that applies to your claim.

11. How can I get a copy of the complete Objection?

Please visit the Court’s website at www.nysb.uscourts.gov (Note that you will need a PACER login and password. These can be obtained through the PACER Service Center at www.pacer.gov). You may also visit American’s case information website at <http://www.amrcaseinfo.com>, or call 1-888-285-9438, or if you are outside the United States, the number is 1-440-389-7498.

12. Can I receive a hard copy of my claim?

Yes. Please visit American’s case information website at <http://www.amrcaseinfo.com>.

Note: GCG, the claims and noticing agent, is not able to give legal advice or interpret any of the language contained in the Notice of Hearing. Please contact your own legal counsel with any additional questions.

² Deadlines and dates will be dependent on individualized letters sent by AMR Corporation, et al. Please read your letter carefully regarding these very important deadlines.

³ Locations may differ and are dependent on individualized letters. Please read your letter for the correct location.

⁴ Deadlines and dates will be dependent on individualized letters sent by AMR Corporation, et al. Please read your letter carefully regarding these very important deadlines.