| (3) | Included in applicable total consideration; not included in applicable tender offer consideration. |
| (4) | Per $1,000 outstanding pool balance or principal amount of Securities tendered and accepted for purchase. Payable only with respect to any class of Securities for which American receives, and accepts for purchase, valid tenders (that are not validly withdrawn) for more than 50% of the outstanding pool balance or principal amount (as applicable) of such class as of the applicable expiration date. |

Assuming American completes the offers for such Securities on terms and conditions acceptable to American, American currently expects to repay all Securities outstanding after the settlement of the applicable tender offer at a repayment price equal to 100% of the outstanding pool balance or principal amount (as applicable) of these Securities, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, which price is less than the applicable total consideration that holders who tender their Securities prior to the applicable early tender date will be entitled to receive if their Securities are accepted for purchase pursuant to the offers.

Tenders of the Securities may be withdrawn at any time prior to 5:00 p.m., EDT, on July 10, 2013 (unless extended), but may not be withdrawn thereafter unless required by applicable law. With respect to any class of Securities for which American receives, and accepts for purchase, valid tenders (that are not validly withdrawn) for more than 50% of the outstanding pool balance or principal amount (as applicable) of such class as of the applicable expiration date, each holder who validly tenders (and does not validly withdraw) its Securities of such class will receive a majority instruction fee of $5 for each $1,000 outstanding pool balance or principal amount (as applicable) of such Securities.

Holders who validly tender and do not validly withdraw their Securities and whose Securities are accepted for purchase in the applicable offer also will be paid accrued and unpaid interest at the applicable stated interest rate (i.e., 8.625%, 10.375% and 13.0% for the 2011-2 Certificates, the 2009-1 Certificates and the 2009-2 Notes, respectively) from and including the last interest payment date of the applicable Securities to, but excluding, the applicable settlement date.

American's obligation in connection with any offer to accept for purchase, and to pay for, any Securities that are validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to an offer is subject to and conditioned upon, among other things, the satisfaction or, where applicable, its waiver or amendment, in each case as determined by American in its sole discretion, of the following conditions: (1) approval from the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York for the offers shall not have been stayed, reversed, modified or vacated; (2) holders of at least 40% of the aggregate outstanding pool balance or principal amount (as applicable) of the Securities, as of the applicable expiration date, on a combined basis shall have validly tendered and not validly withdrawn such Securities prior to the applicable expiration date; (3) the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit shall not have issued any decision, judgment, or
